Sub: Request to assign duty to Mr. Santosh Wadekar, Security Guard as other 9 members of the same petition were taken back.

Respected Sir,

This is in reference to the petition No. 402/1996 dated referred to CGIT by Honorable High Court, Mumbai. Having directed to maintain status co, 10 Security Guards appearing in the list of said petition were to be taken back on duty.

Unfortunately Mr. Santosh S. Wadekar appearing in the list at Sr. No. 97 in original write petition and at Sr. No. 21 in the list submitted to CGIT on page No.39, copy attached for your perusal was left out. Now case is admitted in CGIT and case No. is CGIT-1/19 of 2005. It is earnestly requested to put him back on duty as his appeal letter explains his hopeless condition, please find a copy attached for your kind consideration.

It is also fact that we are running short of Security Guards to man our installations, this has resulted due to retirement, VRS and death, further non-induction is increasing OT. Taking back Mr. Wadekar will not only save the family but also do good to the organization.

It is once again requested to consider the appeal of the individual, moreover when nine others have already been reinstated from the said petition.

With regards.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,

(Pradeep Mayekar)
General Secretary
